

Media Release

For Immediate Release
October, 2007

Fresh new jobs available for salad artists as SumoSalad hits Cairns

Cairns residents are in for a treat – a healthy treat! SumoSalad, one of the fastest growing Australian food brands in the country most famous for revolutionising the healthy fast-food industry, is finally heading your way, and with it bringing exciting new employment opportunities.

Offering an extensive range of fresh, tasty and nutritious meal options, Cairns locals will soon be licking their lips, and loving their hips! However, fresh and healthy food aside, the opening of the new SumoSalad store at Cairns Central Shopping Centre also opens many doors for keen locals, who are looking for employment in a vibrant, fun and healthy new environment!

According to new SumoSalad Cairns Central franchisees, Kate Thompson and Rodney Reade, they're now on the hunt for bright and motivated workers to join their small yet fast-growing team.

"This is a really great opportunity for Cairns locals of any age to gain employment and be part of a successful and exciting new brand," says Kate. "We're really looking forward to being able to improve the diets of all people in Cairns by providing SumoSalad's delicious and nutritious food options, something that all new team members will also be able to share in," continues Rodney.

Hiring now, staff ranging from juniors to senior employees are currently being sought after, with working hours able to suit those studying or with family commitments. Previous experience is not required, and on-site training and accredited traineeships are available to all candidates; however some food and cash handling skills would be an advantage.

All interested persons should possess a love of healthy living along with a great work ethic and willingness to learn. To apply now to be part of a brand new team and exciting new store, simply visit www.sumosalad.com.

So whether you're applying for a job or simply want to experience the great healthy taste of SumoSalad, make sure you check out SumoSalad Cairns Central!

SumoSalad Cairns Central will be open for business on Monday, 22nd October and will be located at FC 14 Cairns Central S/C, Corner of McLeod & Spence St, Cairns QLD 4870. Applications for employment are being accepted now through www.sumosalad.com. SumoSalad – Eat large, stay thin!

- ENDS -

For further media information or to arrange interviews or images, please contact:

Magnum PR – Susan Wood & Michelle Hampton

Phone: (02) 9439 9316 Mobile: 0402 308 305 Email: susan@magnumpr.com.au